
Easter Candy

Bright, sugary marshmallow chicks and bunnies. Super iconic for Easter—people either love them or hate them.

A seasonal version of peanut butter cups, but many say they taste better because of the higher peanut butter-to-chocolate ratio.

Chocolate eggs filled with a gooey fondant center. These are one of the most recognizable Easter treats worldwide.

